Re: 099-16672-00037
Fourth Administrative Amendment to
Part 70 T099-6954-00037

Dear Ms. Miller:

Charleston Corporation was issued a permit on March 22, 1999 for a stationary fiberglass composite reinforced plastic marine and non-marine parts manufacturing operation. A letter requesting a change of operation name was received on January 16, 2003. Pursuant to the provisions of 2-7-11(a)(2) the permit is hereby administratively amended as follows:

The Charleston Corporation and Bennington Marine Corporation have assumed operational control of the source located at U.S. 6 and Dogwood, Bremen, Indiana. Bennington Marine Corporation and Charleston Corporation have the same owner. Bennington Marine Corporation has not added any additional equipment and emissions will not change due to the operational change. This is strictly a name change only. The new operating name is Charleston Corporation and Bennington Marine Corporation. The appropriate reporting forms were updated to reflect the new operating name.

Ms Shelly Miller, Corporate Secretary remains as the Responsible Official. Ms. Miller meets the requirements of 326 IAC 2-7-1(34)(A)(ii). This change was effective January 10, 2003.

All other conditions of the permit shall remain unchanged and in effect. Please attach a copy of this amendment and the following revised permit pages to the front of the original permit.
